

I am strongly against any change to the no call list that will allow banks to call people on the list. These calls are a complete intrusion into the privacy of the home. Please do not allow this.